THE INVITATION OF LOVE

TO ACL WHO WOULD LEAD BETTER AND HAPPIER LIVES. "COME" THE SWEETEST WORD THAT CAN I FOUND IN ALL THE PAGES OF THE BINLS-NEV. MR. HARCOURT'S SERMON OF LAST SUNDAY

The large congregation which greeted the pastor of the Mathodist Church, Rev. R. Harrourt, last Sunday evening was cheering and Life" are not falling in barren places. His texts were as follows:-"And Moses' father-in-law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is have good. Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou and this people that is with thee; for the thing perform it thyself alone."-Exodus xviii: 17, 18 "Come thou with us and we will do thee good, for the Lord hath spoken good concerning Israel."-Numbers x: 29. Moses had just reached the mount of God, said the preacher Here the Israelitish host, with their leader, rested for a season. Here Moses was met by his father-in-law, to whom he told the wonderful story of all that God had done for him and through him. And Jethro rejoiced greatly, and said, "Blessed be the Lord, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians." Every wise father-in-law will rejoice in the pros perity of the son-in-law and will cherish his life, even as Jethro did the life of Moses. Look ing upon his son-in-law, as he sat in the chair of the judge and the people stood before him from morning unto evening, he saw at a glance endangered his valuable life. He showed him a better and safer way. He said unto Moses "Select from the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetonsness, and place such over them to be rulers of thousands and rulers of hundreds of fifties of tens; and they shall bear the burden with thee." This was wise advice. It is always safe for a leader to do what others cannot do, but it is not wise or safe for him to do what he can get others to do. Men are much better employed than otherwise. Trouble seldom springs from the workers, but always from the idlers. Satan has always found mischief for tills hands. After receiving such advice from his father-in-law.

not to leave him. "Leave us not, I pray thee, forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to escape in the wilderness and thou mayest be to us instead of eyes. There is no sweeter word in the Bible than the word "Come." When it fell from the lips of Jesus, when the spirit and the bride uttered it, it was so full of grace and truth that it could not be exceeded in preciousness. "Come thou with us." True Christians are anxious to have others going with them to heaven, the good land which God has promised. And in this sense I desire to use this invitation to-night. This feeling filled the heart of Paul when he exclaimed, "My heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they may be saved." The very instant a man is converted the Spirit prompts him to say, "Come." There is no exception to this rule and all who are Christ's have received this commission. They are ordained of Heaven to labor for others. "I have chosen you and ordained you that you should go and bring forth fruit and that your fruit should remain." I am glad, my hearers, that I live in a day when we have got beyond the idea that there is virtue in the hands of the bishop and that only by such a process is man concerning Israel." He even pleads with him fitted for holy service. I believe in God and in the royal priesthood of the people! Men can be approached and saved by men without the ordination of priest, prelate or bishopmen filled with the spirit of their master and anointed by divine anthority to say unto others, "Come." It is not so much the eloquence of man as it is the baptism of the Holy Ghost. Blessed be God, we are coming of late-yet better late than never-to believe that plain, simple-hearted, Christian men may tell the story of the cross. The time has come if any man has anything to say for Christ he had better say it. A living dog is better than a dead lion! During the days of slavery a mechanic who was working on a slave plantation told one of the slaves if he would follow the North Star he would get away from slavery to freedom. In the few words spoken to that slave lay his freedom from bondage. One day his faith laid hold on the words that had been spoken to him. At first, a failure and incurred suffer-one-he reached the free States. Christian brethren, all around us are slaves We were once slaves ourselves! Shall we keep the way of our escape a secret? Shall we not much rather tell of the Star of Bethlehem? I for one say unto them, "Come thou with us and we will do thee good."

S. S. TRACHERS ASSOCIATION. BOLDING OF ITS ANNUAL MEETING, ELECTION OF OFFICERS FOR THE COMING TEAR AND A CON-CLUSION WITH SOCIAL PESTIVITIES The regular annual meeting of the Sunday

School Teachers' Association was held in the lecture-room of the Baptist Church on Monday evening, June 20. The room was tastefully decorated with floral tributes and presented a very fine appearance. About seventy teachers were present. The meeting was opened with singing and reading of the Scriptures and prayer by the Rev. Dr. Stubbert. Mr. Henry Russell, Treasurer, reported the amount of receipts for situations, near to stations and commanding fine motion this report was accepted. Lyon, Cadmus, Moore, Maxfield and Farrand were appointed a committee on nominations. The committee adjourned to the room above to prepare the nominations. Mr. D. G. Garabrant then made an excellent address upon the success of the Teachers' Association and of the Sabbathschool work in general. Mr. Jos. B. Maxfield followed with a spicy little address upon the advantages to be gained by earnest Sabbath- PRESH BREAD, CARE, PIES, &C. school work. Rev. Dr. Kennedy and Mr. J. W. Snedeker contributed many items of interest upon the subject of Sabta:h-schools. The committee upon nominatious then made their report as follows: President, D. G. Garabrant ; Vice President, J. K. Williams ; Secretary and Treasurer, Henry Russell; Managers, E. Wilde, J. G. Broughton, Charles Seibert, Wm. H. Dodd, John Newton, C. W. Maxfield, Wm. Baldwin and E. E. Marsh. After a vote being taken upon the above nominations, which was declared unanimous, a collation was served, consisting of ice-cream and cake, and a sociable time was enjoyed by all present. Mr. E. It was to the effect that many manufacturers of ice cream use a preparation of glue for the purpose of increasing the quantity and chespening the price, and such a mixture as was set forth would naturally disgust all lovers of cream, and was calculated to injure the business seriously. As two establishnts in this city were named where pure cream can be had, it will be seen that the Register is mart enough to protect its own advertisers vhile inferentially giving the impression that all others are to be looked upon with suspicion. THE COST OF IT. If the total cost of sickness simply in its business aspects were reckoned up, it would be found to be great enough in five years to pay the national debt. The merchant has a headache, from a fit of indigestion, and misses a good bargain. The lawyer does the same with Chills and Fever, a case. To say nothing about doctor's fees, etc., it don't pay to be even a little sick. Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" is a friend One dollar a bottle, Rondout, N. Y.

AGE, Suffered Continually for Many Years from STONE in in the BLADDER.

Rock City, Dutchess Co., N.Y., now of Washington Hollow, in the same county, came to the office of Dr. David Kennedy, the eminent Physician and Surgeon, of Rondout, N. Y., some time since, in a sold-blooded and hard-hearted person in the world. We say he came he was, rather, corried to the Doctor's office, for he was totally helpless, suffered long from Retention of Urine, and had all the symptoms of an aggravated case or calculus formations in the bladder. The usual instrumen-tal examination revealed the presence in the bladder of a urinary calculus of uncommon size. Dr. Kennedy frankly told Mr Westfall that, owing to his age and debility, an operation was out of the question, but that he could, by the prescription of Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," together with lohim to live out all his days. The outcome of this was that the patient enjoys good health to this
